SEEKS PEACE TERMS

The war at its commencement or at any time during its existence. After drawing these conclusions, in the preamble, Senator La Follette says:

Yankee Gunners Win Laurels in North Sea

Rumors of Coming Publication, by Secretary Daniels, of Simms' Report Causes Glee in Navy Department.

Yankee gunners and Yankee seamen in the North Sea and English Channel are upholding the tradition set for them by John Paul Jones in those same waters a century ago. As did the old salty sparrow-bone, Hon. Richard with smooth-bore, cutlass and consummate handling of the sheets and braces outlast and outgait the proudest ships of Britannia's line when Britannia ruled the waves in 1775, so in 1917 the youngsters from factory and farm who have sprung to the breeches of our quick-firers and into the stokeholds of our swift, sleek destroyers are out-manoeuvring and out-hitting the submarine which boasted that it would starve the anti-Tycoon world.

There is almost glee about the Navy Department these days. There are whippersnappers among officers who go away with smiles. The details of the almost daily reports of Admiral Simms are beginning to leak out into the service. As yet, for military reasons which he considers good, Secretary Daniels has refused all statement of the details of Admiral Simms' reports. Yet even he cannot deny that they are very satisfactory.

SUFFRAGETTE BANNERS BURN BY MEN

White House Pickets Appeal to Police and the Crowd Is Moved On.

More suffragette banners, bearing legends inscribed to President Wilson, were burnt by a crowd of men yesterday afternoon by a crowd of government clerks at the White House gates. "Kaiser Wilson" was the way the yellow flag was headed. It was displayed Friday and caused a small riot, but yesterday the crowd swept upon the four suffragettes holding the banner, pushed them up against the iron fence, took the banner away and destroyed it.

PROBE ADVANCE IN COAL PRICE

Trade Commission Finds Washington Dealers Have Reaped Large Profits.

Revelations of profits by the coal men of the District during the last five months were made public last night, as the result of the investigation of the Federal Trade Commission into the high prices of coal in Washington.

Developments show that the supply of coal was 15 per cent larger during the first five months of 1927 than in the corresponding months of the previous year and reports which were circulated in the city proclaiming a shortage of coal were shown by figures of the Trade Commission to be without a vestige of truth.

CATHOLICS DISCUSS CAMP ACTIVITIES

Delegates from Fifty Dioceses Consider Welfare of Soldiers.

A conference was held yesterday at the Catholic University by delegates representing fifty dioceses in the United States, and problems now confronting the country such as organization of camps and the work of army chaplains and problems of training camp activities were discussed.

One of the most important things taken up at the conference was assisting the Knights of Columbus in their present plan of establishing recreation camps throughout the country, and it was proposed that the chaplains of these recreation houses be supplied with one or two priests in the vicinity of the camp to assist him in his work.

Among the speakers were Rev. Louis O'Hern, of Washington; Rev. Dr. Kirby, of Washington; Rev. John J. Burke, of New York; Col. P. C. Callahan, of Louisville, Ky., and Charles Meil, of Washington. These speakers talked on the subject of army chaplains.

LABOR CRISIS PENDING

the government in an extremely embarrassing situation those who insisted on their staying are the blame, not he.

On the other hand, it is realized that the powers that be had no other course open than to prevail upon him to stay. For with him out of the cabinet the strongest labor representative of Great Britain is out, and under the circumstances now prevailing the onus of his "resignation" falls automatically upon the government.

There is a sharp difference between this man who worked himself up from a moulder to a powerful political position and the spectacular Ramsay MacDonald. Henderson has gone on record that characterizes him yesterday at the Westminster meeting as opposing conclusion of peace by labor alone. "The government alone can make peace," he said.

THE HOLY TRINITY

UNITY OF THE GODHEAD

SOURCE OF HUMAN KNOWLEDGE CONCERNING THE DIETY

A GLORIOUS MANIFESTATION IN THE CURRENT AGE

By DR. JAMES E. TALMAGE.

Of the Council of the Twelve, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; Salt Lake City, Utah.

WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE ETERNAL FATHER, AND IN HIS SON JESUS CHRIST, AND IN THE HOLY GHOST.

So runs the first of the "Articles of Faith" of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. A similar asseveration of belief has place in most of the creeds of the Christian world. The Scriptures affirm the existence of the Supreme Trinity, constituting the Godhead, the governing council of the heavens and the earth.

The very name "Trinity," which is commonly found in literature on Christian theology, connotes three distinct entities, and such we believe to be the scriptural signification and therefore expressive of the actual constitution of the Godhead. Three Persons are comprised, each designated by the exalted title "God," and each of whom has separately and individually revealed Himself to mankind; these are God the Father, God the Son, or Jesus Christ, and God the Holy Ghost.

That the three are individually separate and distinct Persons is evidenced by such Scriptures as the following: As our Lord Jesus Christ, emerged from the baptismal waters of Jordan, John, the officiating priest, recognized the visible sign of the Holy Ghost, while he saw before him the Christ with a tangible body of flesh and bones, and heard the voice of the Eternal Father saying: "THIS IS MY BELOVED SON, IN WHOM AM WELL PLEASED." (Matt. 3:16-17).

The three Persons were there present, each manifesting Himself in a different manner to mortal sense, and plainly, each distinct from the others.

Again, in that solemn interview with His apostles on the night of the betrayal, the Lord Jesus thus cheered with sublime assurance their sorrowful despair: "But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me." (John 15:26). Could the members of the Trinity be more definitely segregated? That the Comforter is the Holy Ghost is expressly set forth in the preceding chapter (John 14:26), and in that passage also the Father and the Son are as separately specified.

That the Eternal Father and His Son, Jesus Christ, are individual Persons is clear from the very fact of the relationship expressed, for no being can be his own father or his own son. The numerous Scriptures in which Christ is shown as praying to His Father, and testifying of His distinct personality; and furthermore, amidst the indescribable glory of our Lord's transfiguration, from out of the cloud came the voice of the Father, avowing again: "THIS IS MY BELOVED SON, IN WHOM AM WELL PLEASED." (Matt. 17:5).

The individual members of the Holy Trinity are united in purpose, plan, and method. To conceive of disagreement, differences, or dissension among them would be to regard them as lacking in the attributes of perfection that characterize Godhood. But that this unity involves any merging of personality is nowhere attested in Scripture, and the mind is incapable of apprehending such a union.

In the course of His soulful High-Priestly prayer, Christ supplicated the Father in behalf of the apostles, asking "that they may be one" as He and the Father were one (John 17:21). Surely the Lord did not intimate that He would have the apostles lose their individuality and become one person; and indeed, He had long before assured them that at a time which is even yet future they "shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel." (Matt. 19:28).

Human knowledge concerning the attributes of God, through revelation in ancient days was made known to man—Adam, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Moses and the prophets. And in the present age, men and mankind in great measure come to reject the plain and simple truths of a personal God and His actual Son Jesus Christ, such as the Scriptures affirm, the Father and the Son have revealed themselves anew.

Joseph Smith has given us his solemn testimony that in the early spring of 1820, while engaged in solitary prayer, to which he had been impelled by scriptural admonition (James 1:5), he was visited by the Eternal Father and His Son Jesus Christ, the two Personages appearing amidst a brilliancy of glory beyond description, and that the Father spoke, saying: "THIS IS MY BELOVED SON, IN WHOM AM WELL PLEASED." (Matt. 17:5).

In this vision was ushered in the Dispensation of the Fulness of Times, foretold by the apostle of old (Eph. 1:10). In 1829 there was on earth one mortal who knew beyond all question that the human conception of deity, as an incorporeal essence of something possessing neither form nor substance, is as devoid of truth in respect to both the Father and the Son as its statement in formulated creed is incomprehensible.

Joseph Smith has proclaimed anew to the world the simple truth that the Eternal Father and His glorified Son Jesus Christ are in form and stature perfect Men; and that in their physical likeness mankind has been created in the flesh.
